

The New Ace Z. Dream Blog

The 1st 3 Parts of The Heart

From now on, I'll be publishing my Blog concepts like this. For whoever wants to read them.

1. The Book of Love

The reawakened Ace Z. Dream Blog will dealing with concepts of Love 1st. Why, because the book I published deals heavily with it. Love is something I have become Spiritually Awakened with, in ways I saw Angels and Saints falling down from the sky (it was crazy). And it'll create interesting dialogue.

2. The Bill of Rights of Those Seeking Love

- We are here on this planet for a purpose, God wanted us to exist, God continues to make us so, God wants us here, God is still speaking to us, there is a purpose
- We must offer each other love and understanding; we must understand that each of us comes from a different, complex, and often times oppressive environment
- We understand everybody is beautiful in their own way, every body type has its merits along with its drawbacks, loving someone means appreciating someone for more than just their physical appearance
- We have the right to personal space and personal boundaries; we should respect others as well
- We must continue to defend our civil rights along with those of the LGBTQIAS community

3. If You Love Someone Let Them Go

This is a hard concept for some to fully grasp. Ah, but is it supposed to be grasped or let go? There was a time that I had to let go and detach myself from my mother. I still speak and help her once in a while, but I need my own personal space. Moreover I need Me!

What do you need to let go of, in order to fully start embracing and loving yourself? For some it might be old bad habits, like cigarettes or gambling. For me it was letting go of people who didn't really love me, the way I love myself.

Keeping them at distance so I can have my own personal space. That's not to say I don't bring people in. I summon ALL the Saints, God, some good people around me who are good when I feel my personal space threatened.

So as for this concept, I want you to fully grasp it, and then let it go!
